Dear Clint:

Thank you for joining us at our annual all employee meeting on April 12, and especially for your witty, insightful presentation. We have been engaging speakers for this event for many years now, and the compliments I'm hearing about you include that you were "the best one we've had." Many employees have also told me that they wish that their spouses could hear you speak.

Your impression on us lives on in the many, "Tell me something goods" and "Bless her/his hearts" I'm hearing around the office. And that speaks for itself.

Again, thank you for the wonderful job you did. You, indeed, made me a hero!

Sincerely,
